

Please leave alone the Indiana Statute re: no call list. Citizens do not give up their rights to privacy when they purchase telephone service.

People should be able to shop, and conduct business WHEN THEY WANT TO, and should be able to avoid business when they want to!